FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney J.P. Gonzalez-Sirgo's Pro-Bono Work For "Put Something Back"

Attorney J.P. Gonzalez-Sirgo of Coral Gables, Florida is proud to be a volunteer for Put Something Back, a joint Pro Bono Project of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit and the Dade County Bar Association. Put Something Back matches private pro bono attorneys with income eligible clients or non-profit agencies seeking civil legal assistance. To be eligible for free services, the client's income must not exceed 125% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines. An organization may qualify for free services if it is primarily comprised of eligible clients.

For further information, please visit Put Something Back's website by going here.

Attorney J.P. Gonzalez-Sirgo has built his entire career on protecting the rights of insurance policyholders, personal injury and wrongful death victims and fighting for the rights of Florida consumers and small businesses. The firm has recovered millions of dollars for victims of denied or underpaid insurance claims, victims of catastrophic personal injuries and wrongful death and on behalf of those that have been taken advantage of by Big Business and Big Insurance. J.P. has been certified as a life member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum. The Million Dollar Advocates Forum is recognized as one of the most prestigious groups of trial lawyers in the United States. Membership is limited to attorneys who have won million and multi-million dollar verdicts, awards, and settlements. Fewer than 1% of U.S. lawyers are members.
